

Sherri Brillon

Executive Vice-President & Chief Financial Officer

Sherri's career at Encana has been marked by numerous achievements including senior roles in corporate and operations planning, supply management, land management and investor relations. Sherri directs the financial operations of the company and ensures we have the financial resources in place to enable the execution of our strategy.

Since joining one of Encana's predecessor companies in 1985, Sherri's achievements include key leadership roles in the company's most significant milestones including the structuring of the $22.5 billion merger that created Encana in 2002 and restructuring Encana into a pure play natural gas company in 2009. Her expertise on investment opportunities and resource allocation has been pivotal as the company continues to sharpen its focus on oil and liquids-rich opportunities.

Sherri's professional accomplishments include recognition as one of Canada's Most Powerful Women: Top 100 Hall of Fame™. She has also been recognized by the Women of Influence organization and received the 2010 Driven Trailblazers award recognizing Calgary's women in energy.

Sherri graduated from the University of Calgary in 1981 and is a past director of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce. She and her family reside in Calgary.

Encana is a leading North American energy producer that is focused on growing its strong portfolio of diverse resource plays producing natural gas, oil and natural gas liquids. By partnering with employees, community organizations and other businesses, Encana contributes to the strength and sustainability of the communities where it operates.

Encana Corporation

1800, 855 – 2 Street SW
PO Box 2850
Calgary, Alberta, Canada T2P 2S5
t 403.645.2000